

QUEEN'S SOUTH AFRICA 1899 TO A NURSING SISTER, PRINCESS CHRISTIAN'S ARMY NURSING SERVICE RESERVE WHO WAS MENTIONED IN DESPACHES

QUEEN'S SOUTH AFRICA 1899-1902, NO CLASP 'NURSING SISTER E. A. SNAPE.'

M.I.D. London Gazette 4 September 1901

Miss Edith Annie Snape trained at St Bartholomew's Hospital, London and was registered with the Royal British Nursing Association on 22 November 1885. Having enlisted in Princess Christian's Army Nursing Service Reserve, she sailed with them to South Africa on 9 February 1900. For her services she was Mentioned in Lord Roberts' Despatch (London Gazette 4 September 1901). Entitled to the K.S.A. medal

Condition GVF. Sold with a WW1 era postcard of Cumballa Hill War Hospital

Cumballa Hill War Hospital.