

WW1 GROUP OF 24 RFC AERIAL BATTLEFIELDS AND RUINS PHOTOS

The collage consists of eight historical photographs. The central image is a group portrait of 24 RFC personnel in uniform, arranged in two rows. Surrounding this are seven aerial reconnaissance photographs showing various battlefields and ruins from WW1. The photos are in black and white, with some showing significant damage to buildings and infrastructure.

23 RFC and RNAS aerial shots from WW1, each measuring 20 x 15.5cm or bigger and 1 of 49 Squadron football team. Some stunning battlefield shots, destroyed towns, trench systems, fortifications etc. Some stamped 5 Wing RNAS and 6 Squadron, others appear to be 49 Squadron R.F.C./R.A.F.

Note, images in were taken with a digital camera, not scanned so actual photos are a lot sharper; as you'd expect with aerial photos. However these should give you an idea of content of the lot.
