

A VERY RARE RNAS ALBUM CIRCA 1915 RELATING TO THE SEABROOK HEAVY ARMOURED LORRY

A small hardbound Photo Album, containing 48 original photos relating to early war Royal Naval Air Service armoured cars

The album contains a selection of rare images of the 1914 Seabrook Heavy Armoured Lorry, just 30 of which were built. These vehicles were developed from a single armoured lorry built for Commander C. R. Samson in 1914 and went into service with RNAS armoured car squadrons in early 1915

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Seabrook_armoured_lorry

As well as a number of images of Seabrook armoured lorries, the album contains photos of personnel on campaign, wearing gas masks, posing with captured equipment and in camp etc.

Album measures 16x12cm, Photos all 7x4.5cm

